DEATH CLAIMS SEN. TAFT

Senator's Death Hard Blow for Eisenhower

President Deprived Of the Leader He Needed Most

Editors note: Jack Bell, who writes of the national meaning of Sen. Robert A. Taft's death, has been chief of The Associated Press Senate staff for 15 years. He has had a close-up view of the legislative machinery, in the open and behind the scenes, and similarly has followed Taft's political career.)

WASHINGTON (AP)—The voice of a great American is stilled.

Death has taken Sen. Robert Alponso Taft of Ohio. And it is no over-statement to say that from President Eisenhower's politically inexperienced administration has departed the one leader — besides the President himself — it could least afford to lose.

For Taft was more than the nominal floor leader of Senate Republicans, more than the "Mr. Republican" he was to many of his party, more than a lion-hearted champion of old fashioned personal liberty, more than a blunt man who thought quickly — and often blurted his thoughts whether they pleased or irked his hearers.

To his party in the Senate, Taft was a balance wheel and unifying force who kept its factions from flying off in tangential directions. He was also a master craftsman at the legislative trade —a senator who knew the Senate's every mood, calculated its temper, coddled its pride, coaxed its compromising spirit — but sometimes trampled roughshod over its dissenters.

Eisenhower, too, has lost a friend. Between these two men who glared at each other in the presidential nomination fight last year had grown up by degrees a mutual respect, a golf course camaraderie and finally a warm friendship.

AFTER THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION ended with Dwight Eisenhower the victor, the campaign rivals got together, mended their differences and went to work for the team.

It was after a trip to Augusta, Ga., in April to join a presidential golf foursome that Taft complained of the first signs of his fatal illness. It was only, he said, a strange weakness in the knees. A severe hip pain developed later and complications followed.

The Senate, grown used of late to seeing the tall, balding Ohioan clumping around on crutches, has felt the first weighty impact of his passing.

There the mechanics of politics may seat a Democrat, named by Ohio's Democratic Gov. Frank Lausche, to give the present minority party a 48-47 advantage over the Republicans.

Helped by Sen. Morse (Ind-Ore), Democrats could take over that branch of Congress. Almost unanimously, they don't want that control now. But the lure of committee chairmanships, patronage and prestige is strong. It may be a different story next January or in any intervening special session.

The Senate majority leadership, left vacant by Taft's death, is expected to be filled by Sen. Know-

Death Called 'Tragic Loss' By President

He and Wife Drive To Mrs. Taft's Home To Express Sympathy

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower called the death of Sen. Robert A. Taft today "a tragic loss to America."

Within an hour after announcement of the Ohio senator's death in New York, the President and Mrs. Eisenhower drove from the White House to the home of Mrs. Taft in Georgetown to express their sympathy.

President Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said the President and the first lady either would leave their cards at the Taft home or would express their personal regrets to the senator's widow.

Eisenhower issued this statement:

"The passing of Robert A. Taft is a tragic loss to America.

"The brilliant son of our 27th president, Sen. Taft served the people of Ohio and the nation with distinction and integrity.

"He will be greatly missed on Capitol Hill where his unimpeachable character and his vast knowledge of the business of good government played such an important part in congressional decisions over many years.

"The Senate has lost one of its leading members of all time. The American people have lost a truly great citizen and I have lost a wise counselor and a valued friend.

"Mrs. Eisenhower and I extend to Mrs. Taft and the family our heartfelt sympathies in the personal loss that they have sustained."

The President also signed an executive order declaring:

"As a mark of respect to the memory of the Honorable Robert A. Taft, late majority leader and member of the Senate of the United States, it is herby ordered that the flags on the White House and the federal government buildings in the District of Columbia and the State of Ohio be placed at half staff until interment."

GOP Control Assured

WASHINGTON (AP)—Continued Republican control of the Senate —despite presumptive appointment of a Democrat to succeed Sen. Robert A. Taft—was assured today when Sen. Wayne Morse (Ind-Ore) said he would vote with the Republicans if the issue arose.

Symbol of Republicanism, 63, Loses Grim Fight With Cancer

NEW YORK (AP) — Sen. Robert A. Taft, a symbol of Republicanism, died today of cancer.

The end came peacefully for the 63-year-old Ohio Republican, about 13 hours after he had lapsed into a deep coma.

At his side were his four sons.

Taft's condition suddenly had become critical just four days ago. Then, except for brief intervals, his strength failed rapidly. Not until the end did New York Hospital disclose the cause.

"Sen. Taft's life came to an end quietly and without pain, at 10:30 a.m. EST, July 31, 1953," the hospital said. "His death was the result of widespread, highly malignant tumors."

Taft's widow, Martha, was unable to be with him in his last hours.

Herself, seriously ill as a result of a stroke three years ago, she was at their home in Washington, too sick to make another trip. She had been flown here for a visit Tuesday.

SEN. ROBERT A. TAFT

Taft's death came in a new and major chapter in his career—the job of majority Senate floor leader in the first Republican administration in 20 years.

His illness, however, forced him to give up the active leadership last June.

His death leaves the Senate — for the time being — with a one-man Democratic majority, 47 Democrats, 46 Republicans and one Independent.

Describes Last Fight for Life

In describing the senator's last grim fight for life, the hospital said:

"The first symptoms . . . were pains in the legs, later localized in the left hip. These symptoms had their onset in the latter part of April 1953, and in the beginning were very obscure.

The final hospital bulletin avoided the use of the dread word "cancer" but it was an established fact Taft was a cancer victim. The description of the malignancy also fitted the ravages of cancer.

"The disorder was accompanied by a severe anemia requiring many transfusions. Some of the areas of involvement were benefited by treatment and there were brief periods of general improvemnt.

"However, the disease could not be controlled, and eventually progressed relentlessly despite the application of all the therapeutic weapons available to modern science."

Second GOP Senate Death

Taft is the second Republican senator to die within a week. Sen. Charles W. Tobey of New Hampshire died last Friday.

A GOP appointee is expected to succeed Tobey, the New Hampshire Republican.

But Taft's native Ohio has a Democrat, Frank J. Lausche, as its governor, and Lausche is expected to name a Democrat to succeed Taft.

Should these expectations materialize, the Senate lineup would be: 48 Democrats, 47 Republicans, 1 Independent.

This would give the Democrats a slim majority if they were joined by Morse, who would hold the balance of power.

However, if Morse chose to vote with his former Republican colleagues, the 48-48 tie could be decided in favor of the GOP by Vice President Nixon, a Republican.

Despite their opportunity to wrest senatorial power, which means the coveted committee chairmanships, Democrats are reported to be reluctant to take over control of that body at present.

Taft's stay in the hospital had been marked by generally optimistic reports until Tuesday, when it was announced his condition had deteriorated.

He rallied Wednesday and as late as yesterday was able to eat breakfast, chat and dangle his legs over the side of his bed.

Took Turn for Worse Yesterday

But he took a sudden turn for the worse late yesterday and went into coma from which he did not emerge.

One son, William Howard Taft III, ambassador to Ireland, made a trans-Atlantic flight to be with him during his last hours.

Another, Horace, a physicist, flew in from Los Alamos, N. M. The other sons with him at his death were Robert Jr., and Lloyd.

One of the legislative monuments Taft left behind him was the Taft-Hartley law, one of the most controversial measures of recent years. Labor interpreted the law as shackling. But Taft saw in it no destruction of any basic labor rights.

Controversy was nothing new to the tall, ruddy-faced Ohio Republican. Time and again he was involved in it. But out of his differences with others there emerged Taft's reputation as one of the most respected politicians of his generation.

He eventually became "Mr. Republican" to his friends — a nickname that recognized the tremendous influence he wielded with the GOP members of the Senate. Long the party's Senate spokesman on domestic affairs, he took over foreign policy leadership with the death of Sen. Vandenberg (R-Mich) in 1951.

Ironically, death cut down Taft only six months after he had assumed the biggest and toughest role of his career, the role of Senate majority leader in the first Republican administration in 20 years.

It was a role that even his enemies conceded was worthy of the rather austere veteran of 15 years in the Senate. He was counted on to keep a delicate balance in a Republican party where his own conservatism was in contrast to the internationalism of the GOP's other major wing.

Born in Cincinnati, Taft was a student at Yale when his father sat in the White House. Many of his holidays from school were spent there. There, too, he met the girl who became his wife, Martha Wheaton Bowers. Her father was President Taft's solicitor general.

When young Robert A. Taft said goodbye to the White House at the end of his father's term in office, it

Bomber Shot Down 40 Miles From Russia, Says Survivor

Only Man Saved Reports B-50 Attacked by Fighter Planes

TOKYO (AP)—The lone survivor of a B50 bomber which crashed off the coast of Russian Siberia Wednesday said the big bomber was attacked and shot down by fighters, Lt. Gen. O. P. Weyland, Far East Air Force commander, said tonight.

Moscow said yesterday two Soviet fighters exchanged shots with a B50 over Vladivostok.

Lt. John E. Roche of Washington, D. C., told Weyland the bomber was shot down shortly after 6:15 a. m. about 40 miles off the Russian coast.

The Air Force said the plane was on a navigational training mission.

Weyland said he personally interviewed the rescued co-pilot.

Roche was snatched from the water by a Navy destroyer, the Picking, after having been in the water 11 hours and spending another 11 hours in a boat dropped by a search plane.

Weyland's headquarters said Roche was in good physical condition and had only bruises on his head and face suffered when he bailed out of the bomber.

The plane carried 16 other crewmen. The search for more survivors was abandoned today.

The note demanded that the U.S. government see to it that Russia's frontier is not violated and that the "guilty fliers" be punished.

U. S. State Department officials in Washington declined to comment on the Soviet protest, but there were indications there would be an announcement Friday and that the Soviet charge would be rejected.

The B50 was from the 343rd Strategic Reconnaissance Squadron based at Forbes Air Force Base at Topeka, Kan. It was on temporary duty with the Far East Air

Arson Charges Filed Against Marion Man

Attempted to Burn Apartment, Say State And City Investigators

Two days of questioning of a Marion man by police, arson investigators and firemen came to a close today with filing of two charges of attempted arson against Herman Dale Sharrock, 39, of 663½ W. Center St.

The charges, signed by C. R. LaMonda of the arson bureau of the State Fire Marshal's office, allege that Sharrock attempted to set fire to an apartment building over the V and S Bar and Grill on W. Center St. on July 28 and July 21.

Authorities are still seeking to determine if he had any connection with the series of set fires last month which caused damage of $365,000 to industrial buildings in the city's west side.

In Municipal Court this morning, Sharrock pleaded not guilty to both counts and asked that he be given a preliminary hearing. His bond for appearance for the preliminary hearing was set at $5,000 by Municipal Court Judge W. Dexter Hazen. The hearing was scheduled Monday at 1 p.m.

Federal Rent Controls End At Midnight

No Drastic Increase Expected, 10 Per Cent Boost Forecast

WASHINGTON (AP)—Federal rent control, last of the economic curbs born of World War II, dies at midnight tonight in some 1,100 communities across the nation.

Office of Rent Stabilization officials said they do not expect any wave of drastic rent increases to follow. One official estimated rents generally will go up about 10 per cent.

Some states are prepared to step in with their own laws. New York has had such legislation for some time. Massachusetts, New Jersey and Kansas have adopted laws which permit imposition of state control. Connecticut has a law that becomes effective automatically when federal curbs end.

Of the big cities outside these states, only Philadelphia and Baltimore have passed controls ordinances. And there, federal officials said, is a real question of constitutionality, since neither Maryland nor Pennsylvaia has passed enabling legislation.

Federal rent control first went into effect in April, 1942. At the height of World War II, some 16 million units were covered.

After tonight, only about 120,000 units in scattered critical defense areas will remain subject to federal rent supervision.

These are areas that include military or atomic energy installations where there has been a substantial influx of personnel, and where housing shortages are found to threaten to result in excessive rent boosts.

17 Feared Drowned After Ontario Wreck

MORRISBURG, Ont. (AP) — A speeding Toronto-Montreal bus hit a parked truck west of here today and both vehicles plunged into 20 feet of water in the Williamsburg Canal. A reporter at the scene said 17 passengers drowned.

Police said the bus carried 37 passengers. The reporter said among 17 counted survivors was the bus driver.

First Hurdle Cleared to Hike In Debt Ceiling

Ways and Means Eisenhower Proposal Committee Approves

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's late-hour proposal to boost the federal debt ceiling to 290 billion dollars cleared its first congressional hurdle today. The House Ways and Means Committee approved it 17-6.

It was the first step in a tense, rapid-fire drive by administration forces to push across the storm provoking request in the closing hours or days of this congressional session.

House leaders planned to rush

Congress Acts Quickly

Foreign Aid Agreement Quickens Adjournment

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate-House agreement on the foreign aid budget early today removed one of the last remaining barriers to adjournment of Congress, but President Eisenhower's delayed request for a boost in the federal debt limit clouded the picture.

Administration lieutenants in the House foresaw no obstacle there to passage of a bill to hike the debt ceiling by 15 billion dollars to 290 billions. But in the Senate, there was glum talk that the session might have to be prolonged into next week.

Acting Republican Leader Knowland of California said he wanted to reserve judgment on when Congress could quit for the year. Before the debt limit request, he had been aiming at tonight. His Democratic counterpart, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, spoke of postponing adjournment temporarily.

A Senate-House conference committee worked until past midnight local time (11 p. m. EST) to reach a compromise agreement on a $6,652,422,390 foreign aid money bill. Although there was some grumbling among the House conferees, Chairman Taber (R-NY) of the Appropriations Committee said that "Why, certainly" the House would accept it. Final Senate okay is also needed.

The total amount is $699,315,866 less than Eisenhower asked. It includes $4,530,457,999 in new cash and $2,121,964,391 in authority to spend funds appropriated by pre-

Gov. Lausche May Tip Off Future Plans

Senate Appointment Seen as Guidepost To Political Dreams

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The appointment Gov. Frank J. Lausche makes to Republican Sen. Robert A. Taft's seat could be a guidepost to the governor's political plans.

Statute requires the governor to fill such a vacancy. The appointee would serve until Dec. 15, 1954. His successor would be elected in November 1954, to serve Taft's unexpired term ending Jan. 3, 1957.

Associates discounted published reports that Lausche, a Democrat, might appoint Taft's brother, Charles P. Taft of Cincinnati, or another Republican to the Senate. Lausche soundly defeated Charles Taft last November to become Ohio's first four-term governor. His victory margin led politicians to express belief Lausche could remain governor about as long as he wished.

Lausche refused to discuss the political role facing him. But the governor indicated he was aware his appointee might shift the balance of power in the Senate from Republicans to Democrats.

His associates expressed belief Lausche may not have formed definite plans for his future course. They sized things up this way:

If Lausche named a comparatively unknown appointee, it would indicate Lausche had decided to run for Taft's unexpired term in 1954, or that he wanted to leave the door open so he could decide later.

If the governor named a widely-known political figure who wanted to seek election to the Senate in 1954, it would indicate Lausche did not aspire to the Senate.

Lausche disclaimed ambition for

Who Lost?

The soul-searching which began with the truce in Korea will go on a long time.

The North Koreans fired a 124-gun victory salute in Pyongyang the other day because they had won the war. There has been no nonsense like that in Seoul, the capital of South Korea, or anywhere else in non-Communist territory.

Nobody won the war in Korea.

But the way to grasp the dilemma of a war without victory is to understand that it also was a war without defeat. Nobody lost the war in Korea, either.

The United States as the principal contributor to the opposition put up by the United Nations against the invaders of South Korea aimed only to repel the aggressors.

It had no aim to beat them into submission or to invade their country. There was no thought at the outset of scoring a triumph for U.S. arms. That thought came into the affair after some Americans began to think of the Korean war as a challenge to their national pride.

Within the terms on which the United States started to fight as the mainstay of the United Nations, it did not lose the war in Korea. Neither did it win the war, in the sense of being able to dictate peace terms.

It does not follow by any known formula of logic that a nation which fails to win a war must therefore have lost it. To think in that pattern is to embrace the fallacy that what is not white must therefore be black, excluding the possibility it might be gray.

Remembering the Name

Just one year ago newspapers were running hurry-up stories about the governor of Illinois, who had been given the Democratic presidential nomination at Chicago on July 25.

Adlai E. Stevenson then was known by name only, and even the name was new enough to give trouble to the Democratic spellbinders who had to learn to roll it off their tongues on a few days' notice. But a year later, Mr. Stevenson is still in the news.

He is on his way home from a world tour. What he has done and said has been reported every step of the way since he left San Francisco early last March. No defeated presidential candidate in American history ever was able to do this before. Someone has earned credit for a new wrinkle in presidential politics.

It is a long time until the Democratic convention of 1956, but the former governor of Illinois—no stranger now—is keeping it in sight.

The name of Adlai E. Stevenson will lead all the rest when the Democrats meet again, provided he can do in 1954 and 1955 what he has done thus far in 1953.

Blue-Ribbon Flights

An Air Force bomber has been flown across the Atlantic in the record time of 4 hours and 45 minutes.

In the days ahead, there will be savage competition to nail down the blue-ribbon honors for crossing the Atlantic by air in record time.

The aviators will pick up where the sailors left off when they quit building superliners at public expense. And like the sailors, they eventually will have to get together on the ground rules. In the meantime, here's one to start on:

All times must be for flights in the same direction. The Air Force bomber's spectacular time of 4 hours and 45 minutes is for an west-east crossing, with a favoring wind of up to 104 miles an hour, for an average speed of 616 miles.

The best time for an east-west crossing has been made by a British bomber which made an average speed of 605 miles an hour against the prevailing wind. This was a more spectacular performance, in view of that circumstance.

National pride notwithstanding, the British still have the faster bomber.

Leave It to the Dogs

There was the metallic whir of a cicada. . .

The lawn grass was parched and faded, like the nap on an old rug. . .

The passersby were walking with artificially slowed gaits, hobbled by their lack of energy.

The neighbors on one side were away on vacation and the neighbors on the other side had just returned. . .

A lawn sprinkler across the street was whirling away water in a lost cause. . .

The Cleveland Indians were trying to stay within sight of the New York Yankees. . .

Roadside stands were offering the first sweet corn of the season. . .

The dog was lying on the cool concrete floor in the basement. . .

Dog days had come.

What started out centuries ago as a season marked by the rising of the Dog Star now is a season marked by all the familiar signs of summer at the height of its heat and maturity; i.e., when the family dog retires to the basement to wait for autumn.

Future of U.N.

By David Lawrence

The most important issue looming up for decision by the American electorate in the next few years will be whether the United States is to remain a member of the United Nations — and, if so, under what conditions.

The question will arise not merely with respect to the record of action or inaction in connection with the whole Korean problem from its inception, but it will be given even more emphasis by the movement already under way to revise the U.N. Charter.

This re - examination of the entire document takes place automatically in 1955.

But already there are some influences at work in America and other countries to use the occasion to subtract even more from the sovereignty and independence of every member country by a delegation of more power to the international body.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee, under the chairmanship of Sen. Wiley is planning its own study of the charter revision problem. This is in response to the Gillette resolution just passed by the Senate.

Such a committee could undertake simultaneously a comprehensive analysis of what the United Nations has or has not done, in the last three years particularly, to carry out its avowed purpose—to resist aggression and develop measures of collective security.

Whether one agrees that the U.N. ought to be made over into a sort of world government, or whether one feels that the present U.N. organization is at present set up in such a way as to affect adversely the interests of the United States, it is important to get the facts to the American people.

Sen. Taft, in his much - discussed speech in Cincinnati, called attention to various weaknesses of the U.N. on the legal side, and now that the Korean truce has been signed, it becomes even more pertinent to inquire just how valid the document is in relation to the United Nations itself under whose auspices theoretically the war in Korea has been fought.

Soviet Russia insists, for instance, that, legally speaking, whether her envoy was or was not present at the meeting of the Security Council in June 1950 when the resistance to Communist aggression in Korea was authorized, her affirmative vote was necessary to the adoption of such a resolution.

If the United Nations is a federation of sovereign governments, then the mere presence of a nation's ambassador at a meeting is not essential and the approval or disapproval by cable or other means of communication from its foreign office is all that is necessary.

If, on the other hand, the U.N. is a form of world government or international conference in which acts of each country are final and are not subject to further ratification by the governments back home, then the Soviet argument is without merit.

It will be interesting to see whether the Korean settlement—if any document ever comes up for action at the U.N.—goes back to the Security Council for further action or whether the Assembly will take over such jurisdiction by a majority vote and without regard to the Security Council's original action in June 1950.

There are also other steps since June 1950 which would seem to require explanation.

Why didn't all the member countries furnish arms to resist aggression?

Why did some countries which offered aid find that such offers were rejected by the United States or by the group which did the fighting?

Why did the so - called "collective measures" committee meet a few times and then abandon the task delegated to it by the U.N.—namely, to devise ways and means of making efective what is known as "collective security"?

Apparently the U.N. is a kind of organization which, when it once passes a resolution, has no mechanism to see that it is executed.

It seems to overlook faithlessness and disregard of charter obligations — such as the trade carried on with the enemy or the arming of the aggressor by Soviet Russia.

Where is there any authority in the U.N. to discipline such treasonable acts?

There are lots of unanswered questions which the American people will want to know more about before deciding whether to help reorganize the U.N. or to withdraw from it.

Lessons From a War

By TRUMAN TWILL

Like all other citizens, I am soaking up everything I can hold about the lessons my country is supposed to have learned in Korea. But I have some reservations not being mentioned by the people who claim to know what the lessons are.

The main one is a doubt that my country learned anything, or is capable of learning anything. On the other hand, I have boundless confidence in people who want to learn. There is no shortage of lessons for people.

Asia is in revolt against centuries of hard-nosed opposition by all kinds of exploiters. Asiatics are on the march. Only a dumb western government could misread the signs of emerging nationalism — the signs that the age of empire is over. When Gen. MacArthur once said all this no one listened; everybody was having too much fun watching the fight between him and Harry Truman.

Modern arms in the hands of backward people make them just as forward in the techniques of mass slaughter as the Germans, themselves, the acknowledged masters of 20th century destruction. One of the hardest lessons about Korea to learn is that the pilots of those MIGs were Chinese, just as the fellows who flew the ZEROs were Japs. Whoever puts weapons in the hands of willing learners shouldn't squawk when the weapons are used.

The wave of the future is breaking with a thundering roar on the coast of Asia, having swept its way from east to west, all the way around the world. It is historic irony that Americans should have been the ones to hasten the exploitation and education of Asiatics—to force the Koreans and the Japanese at gunpoint to expose themselves to western "influence." Americans now are learning what gunpoint means in reverse.

Americans will not be loved in Asia any more than they are loved anywhere else. The American concept of freedom and individual rights will not be understood in Asia any better than it is understood anywhere else. There is only one thing anywhere that all people will be able to understand about Americans in this shrinking world—whether or not they keep their word.

The American record in Asia has not been good so far. Neither has it been wholly bad, but things are off to an uncertain and hesitant beginning in what is destined to be a momentous undertaking for civilization's foremost trustee and guardian.

One more fiasco like the abandonment of China and the desertion of Korea at a critical juncture in 1949, followed by its partial rescue in a war that recked the country, would leave no benefit of a doubt about Americans. It would be demonstrated that Americans cannot acquit themselves with honor and credit in their trustee-guardian role.

People can grasp these things but they are beyond the grasp of governments, except insofar as individuals within a government can cause a whole government to reflect what they believe.

Individuals have known since the Spanish - American War that the United States was fumbling and improvising in Asia. It has fumbled and improvised again as far as government is concerned. But as far as people are concerned, it has learned enough to proceed with a sure touch.

The Asiatics are tired of living under the heels of tyrants and exploiters. They are on the march. If Americans don't know what to do about that, they have lost their touch and deserve the fate which lies in wait for countries and for individuals who get out of step with history.

Probe of Foundations Has Precedent

By Raymond Moley

The House Rules Committee has approved and given the green light to a resolution introduced by Rep. Reece which provides for a study of tax-exempt foundations and similar institutions.

This will, when passed by the House, reconstitute and continue the work of a committee headed in the previous Congress by the late Eugene Cox of Georgia.

Due to limitations of time and the failing health of the chairman, the Cox Committee was able barely to scratch the surface of a field that needs deep and vigorous plowing.

The Cox Committee was able however, to settle a number of points which clearly established the legitimacy of a congressional study of the nature and activities of foundations. They are, in a very special way, responsible to the public and its government.

It was admitted over and over by officials of foundations in the inquiries of the Cox investigation that since their income is exempt from taxation it is, in a large part, money vested with a public interest. Without tax exemption it would share with all other private income in the support of government.

The Congress as well as the Treasury has a right to see if it is being spent for purposes which are not only free of a subversive taint but useful and wholesome.

This principle of public responsibility was well established 40 years ago when the first of the community foundations was established in Cleveland.

The trust instrument creating that foundation specified that three of the five members of the governing board should be appointed by public officials.

W. H. Goff, the truly great and far-sighted man who conceived the idea of a community trust and who was himself once a member of a Rockefeller Foundation, stated that he could not agree with the elder Rockefeller's idea of a self-perpetuating board.

Indeed Rockefeller, 40 years ago when he was establishing the foundation that bears his name, vainly sought to have Congress incorporate it.

Strangely enough there were enough voices raised in Congress against such a recognition that the offer was rejected. Radicals of that day regarded the idea as an effort to incorporate conservatism. At that time either President Taft or his attorney-general—I am not sure which—made a slighting remark about the motion of "incorporating Mr. Rockefeller." Times certainly have changed.

High taxes and the conviction among people of substance that great personal inheritances are not a particularly good thing for children have enormously increased the number of tax-exempt foundations.

One expert witness before the Cox Committee last year put the number between 30 and 35 thousand. He estimated the aggregate of these at $7 billion or two.

However, the wide variety of such foundations almost precludes any specific estimates.

Students of history may be interested to know that foundations are not new. They seem to have started in ancient Egypt and Chaldea.

In 65 B. C. Cicero initiated the first known public investigation of foundations and, due to its efforts, many were dissolved because of some relationship to the conspiracy of Catiline.

So Rep. Reece will not be entirely a pioneer. Nor will he be unable to cite precedent.

Great good can come from a penetrating and constructive study of foundations by the Reece Committee when and if established.

It need not concentrate upon the extent to which some foundations have supported subversive activities although there have been definite instances of that sort.

Foundations properly managed can do many things that are vitally important such as the magnificent contributions of the Rockefeller Foundation to health and medicine.

They are, on the other hand, often plagued by lazy and merely ornamental boards of control and bureaucratic staffs.

The risk of wasteful and undesirable activities increases as they penetrate into the so-called "social sciences."

There is need for some wholesome correctives in their work in that field either by their own efforts or by the strong push of a congressional committee.

Derby Officials Lauded

To The Star: Just a few words of praise to the many men and civic organizations who promoted the Soap Box Derby program.

Amid all the accompanying organized confusion in getting the Derby under way and the hustle and bustle of boys having their cars inspected, there was a trio of unheralded men who were quietly contributing to the hopes of several youngsters who were about to lose out in the event because of failure to meet the inspection standards.

As the boys, with crestfallen countenances, slowly followed their cars to the sidelines one could hear a man say, "What's the matter, son? Can we help?" With this remark a quick gleam of new interest would light up the eyes of the boy who was quick to recognize another chance and a source of new encouragement which was readily and whole-heartedly given on the spot.

These men not only furnished their time and effort but loaned tools to work with and furnished additional material when necessary along with words of encouragement in regard to the deficiencies of the car. All the while they were working and directing the boys in the necessary repairs or corrections to the cars.

After the race started I inquired as to how many boys were helped. The answer was, "We have helped 26 boys get their cars fixed for the race and believe us, we have never enjoyed helping anyone as much as we have this group of boys." There were other very interesting sideline incidents too numerous to mention.

These men, Captain Sullivan, Russell Gorrell and John Ullom of the Marion Engineer Depot, are to be given an extra vote of thanks for noble service to a program which even though successful would not have been as much so had these men not generously given their time and effort. After checking with a few of the boys who were helped I was not surprised at the various expressions of thanks made to these good Samaritans. These men are a credit to any community along with the civic organizations who so generously gave their time and effort to a real boys' program.

As long as Marion can have men contributing to the boys of today they will be contributing to the men of tomorrow and a real America of the future.

France Expensive

PARIS (AP)—France is one of the most expensive countries in the world, and here, from the newspaper, LeFigaro, are some examples of why: Unloading of a cargo of coal from a 7,500-ton ship costs $1,000 in Holland, $1,700 in Belgium, and $3,200 in France. Automobile shock-absorbers cost 600 francs in England, and 1,300 in France. It takes 59 hours to make and assemble an English tractor, and the same process in France takes 136 hours. Raw sulphur costs 13,000 francs in Britain, and 26,000 in France. Nickel costs 375 francs in Canada, 450 in Germany and Britain, and 775 per kilogram in France.

Collision, No Drivers

Emil Views the Armistice

Dear Babe: Well at last there's an armistice. It could be just a switch to bigger "tents" with more seating capacity and more modern voice throwing equipment, but I hope not. Still an armistice can keep a guy at the front longer than war can these days.

All the same it is great to have the shooting over and not to care who is on some rockpile and who ain't.

If I never go up one side of a mountain and down the other again it will be too soon.

I don't know how the war came out, but Sgt. Mooney says the U.N. broke even on steep hills and finished a little ahead of the enemy on rocky caves and precipices.

I think the Commies were as anxious as we to call time out as this had become the kind of war in which neither side could come up with the right answer to the plain question, "Who's ahead?" even for Groucho Marx and a $1,000 jackpot.

If there was ever a war in which it was hard to feel noble and heroic this was it. It got started as a police action but I never met no GI who planned to join the Policeman's Benefit League instead of the American Legion when he got home from Korea. Me and all the others in this shindig did the very best we could and it was no picnic.

I am sorry things didn't turn out better for the South Koreans. They went through hell and deserved a better break. You can't see the blind and crippled kids and the starving old folks over here without wishing we could of shoved the Commies back behind their own goal posts, but the whole global problem is too deep for me.

All I know is it is a week since I fought anybody for the right to sleep outdoors on a rocky hill and I feel rested for the first time in a couple of years.

We all want to get home, but we are not counting on being at Coney Island or in the Roxy lobby soon.

Sgt. Mooney says I can expect to be kept over in Korea guarding electric iceboxes, TV sets, fancy kitchen gadgets, deep - freeze units and blueprints which will be used to rehabilitate South Korea. A big force of GI's may be needed to see that the Commies don't capture the bulldozers, derricks, steam shovels and lease-lend architects.

It will be a break if my homecoming gets on the agenda before I have long white whiskers. My bet is that the Russians will make the peace talks more brutal than the Battle of the Bulge. So knit me a sweater for the winters of 1954 and 1955 just in case.

Love and kisses,

Emil.

Sen. Charles Tobey, who died the other day, had his faults, but he was a standout as an old-fashioned American who had a genuine sense of indignation and the courage to express it.

Jim Farley has been named with Herbert Hoover to perfect a plan for government reorganization . . . This is a victory for "cokes," world peace, better understandings and effective soft drink jungles.

The Commies have placed men within the New York Police Department, it is now known, but you can bet your shirt that "The Volga Boatman" will never replace "Rose O'Grady" at the policemen's ball.

You can be fined $50 or sent to jail for 50 days now for appearing in a New York park in any attire which fails to cover the body from the shoulders to a point midway between the hips and knees. .. If you wanna dress like that go to a video where you belong!

Election Set Aug. 14

Farmers in Marion Co. Vote on Wheat Quotas

Farmers throughout the United States will vote Aug. 14 to determine whether or not to accept wheat quotas which have been set up by the secretary of agriculture.

The referendum must receive a two-thirds affirmative vote to pass. If the measure is voted down, the farmers will receive only 50 per cent of the parity price on the wheat they harvest next year. If it passes, the regular 90 per cent of parity will be paid.

Farmers in Marion County will vote in one of five locations which have been arranged according to townships. Following is the list of voting places for the county:

Claridon, Scott, and Tully Townships at the Caledonia council room.

Marion, Grand Prairie, Pleasant, and Green Camp Townships at the Marion County Production and Marketing Administration Office, 194 S. State St.

Richland, Waldo, and Prospect Townships at the Waldo Township House in Waldo.

Montgomery and Bowling Green Townships in the council room in LaRue.

Grand, Salt Rock, and Big Island Townships in Meeker School.

The voting will be carried on from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The PMA office is in the process of preparing a list of eligible voters and sending out the quotas for the coming year.

The Secretary of Agriculture has alloted 21,032 acres for wheat production in Marion County in 1954. According to Frank Montgomery of the county PMA office, there were about 36,000 acres of wheat harvested in Marion County this year. This was the highest acreage in the history of the PMA office, which made its first allotments in 1941.

Affects 1,500 Farmers

Approximately, 1,500 farmers in the county will be affected by the cut in allotment next year. Montgomery received the report of the quota Wednesday and is now in the process of determining the allotments for each farm. He must have those in the hands of the farmers by Aug. 7.

If the farmers in the country vote to reject the allotments, it could mean a loss to them of about $1.25 on each bushel of wheat. Montgomery said farmers in all probability will accept the quotas.

As of June 15, 100 per cent of parity on wheat was $2.43 as an average for the entire country. In Marion County, 90 per cent of the parity price was $2.28 for number one wheat.

The estimated total supply for the year beginning today, was 1,760 million bushels. This figure is about 50 per cent above the normal supply of wheat. The normal supply figure is 1,156 million bushels.

Farmers must stay within their allotment or suffer a loss of 45 per cent of parity on all excess wheat. Excess wheat is that produced on acreage more than in the allotment. If the farmer exceeds his allotted acreage, he must either store the excess wheat, sell it with the penalty reduction, or turn it over to the Secretary of Agriculture for use in relief cases. He must dispose of his excess wheat before being allowed to sell the rest of his harvest.

In the event of emergency or increase in export demand, the Secretary of Agriculture may suspend the allotments, allowing the farmers a free hand in the size of their wheat crops.

Farmers voting on Aug. 14 will be those whose farms are subject to the quota limitations and who will harvest more than 15 acres of wheat in 1954. Montgomery must send the results to Columbus. From there, they will be tabulated with votes from the rest of the country to determine the final outcome.

He points out that the farmers have approved the allotments in the past and expects the same results this year.

Man Pleads Not Guilty To Two Traffic-Charges

Rollie Gene Harris, 20, of near Marion, entered pleas of not guilty in Municipal Court today to charges of reckless operation and failure to comply with an order of an officer. The deputy said he noticed Harris was driving his automobile in a reckless manner on Parkview Ave.

Harris was arrested Wednesday afternoon and was released upon posting a $75 bond which was continued this morning by Judge W. Dexter Hazen until a hearing to be held sometime next week.

East Germans Fight for Food

West's Goal Boosted To 3 Million Parcels

BERLIN (AP)—West Berlin officials announced today they have upped their target to three million free food parcels for East Germans. The move came as Western food stations braced for a weekend invasion that is expected to boost the first week's distribution past the million mark.

The mob-like rush of the hungry increased despite an East German Communist police announcement that they are confiscating the previous identity cards of all applicants for the Western food. Without the cards, the Easterners are exposed to jail sentences as criminals.

Communist police also toured factories, offices and homes in the Russian-controlled zone forcing people to sign pledges they would "not go to Berlin for the American beggar parcels." Many signers were expected to come anyway.

As the relief program went into its fifth day, approximately 650,000 parcels had been handed out and West Berlin officials indicated that even the expanded target of three million might not prove enough.

"We just plan to keep giving the parcels away as long as people keep coming," they declared. "We don't know how long that will be. There are some 19 million people in East Germany and East Berlin."

Third Sleeping Trucker Shot, Critically Hurt

LISBON, Ohio (AP)—A sleeping truck driver was shot in the head and wounded critically today after he parked along U. S. 30. State Highway Patrolmen said it was the same kind of shooting as those along the Pennsylvania Turnpike, where a maniac is blamed for two deaths.

Lt. W. B. Umpleby of the Ohio patrol identified the wounded man as John K. Sheperd, 34, of West Alexandria, W. Va.

A bullet from a .32 caliber gun—the same size as was used in Pennsylvania—entered Sheperd's head below his right ear and lodged in his jaw.

The lieutenant said Sheperd was in serious condition, but that doctors believed the slug had failed to enter his brain. He was taken to Salem Clinic Hospital.

The shooting, said Umpleby, took place between 3 a. m. and 3:30 a. m., a mile and six-tenths south of Lisbon, on the road which leads to East Liverpool.

"He had no warning," said the lieutenant.

Man Sentenced to Jail On Charge He Beat Wife

Richard D. Newell, 24, of 663½ W. Center St. was sentenced to 30 days in jail and fined $100 and costs when he pleaded guilty to a charge of assualt and battery at a hearing this morning in Marion Municipal Court.

Newell was arrested at his apartment at 2:56 p.m. Thursday on a warrant filed against him by his wife, Almeda, charging that he attacked her sometime yesterday.

The heavy penalty came after testimony before Judge W. Dexter Hazen indicated Newell beat his wife severely. Asked if he wished to say anything in his own behalf, Newell said no. He is confined in the Marion County jail.

The grey squirrel, a native of America, was introduced into England in the 19th Century.

Industry Needs Standard Names

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (UP)—Use of specific and standardized words in labeling machines and machine parts would save American industry millions of dollars a year, according to Harry C. Davis, president of the Conveyor Manufacturers Association.

"In defense contracts we have frequently seen as many as five different terms used for the same equipment, and in many instances the same term meant five different things to different companies," Davis told a meeting of engineers here.

Each engineer was given a dictionary of more than 1500 conveyor terms and definitions agreed upon as standardized terminology by members of the association. The principal terms were listed in English, German, French and Spanish to prevent confusion in orders from foreign countries.

"It took three years of hard work to arrive at standard terminology, but acceptance of the idea by both manufacturers and users has been nothing short of amazing," Davis said.

He suggested that to save money and prevent confusion every industry ought to set up standard terminology.

Recreation Plans In Delaware Dam Up to Gov. Lausche

Special to The Star

DELAWARE — Future development of the Delaware Reservoir park facilities hang in the balance this week awaiting Gov. Frank J. Lausche's action on House Bill 816.

The bill contains an appropriation of $45,000 for the improvement of facilities at Delaware County's largest recreational area.

V. W. Flickinger, Chief of the Division of Parks, Ohio Department of Natural Resources, said Wednesday plans call for the construction of roadways, parking lots, picnic areas, wells and toilet facilities, as far as the money will go. It is hoped that funds will be sufficient to construct a park service building.

The $45,000 is the largest sum that the Parks Division has had for use here since the Department took over the recreational area at the Delaware Reservoir two years ago, Flickinger said.

Park manager Fred Simonds and his staff will continue to patrol the boating activities and inforce the no swimming regulation in effect at the park, Flickinger said.

Contracts are on bid for the construction of toilets and are to be received by the Division of Parks in early August. Construction will begin soon after the contract is awarded.

Disney Sued, Patent Infringement Alleged

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A 10-million-dollar suit brought yesterday against Walt Disney Productions alleges patent infringement. It was filed by Vincent I. Whitman, New York City.

He contends he patented in 1937 a composite system of photography involving foreground action superimposed on still backgrounds. He says Disney has used it at least 10 years in films including "Snow White," "Bambi," Fantasia," "Peter Pan" and "Cinderella."

Reds File Two More Charges Truce Violated

11th, 12th Complaints Lodged; Not Serious, U.N. Command Says

MUNSAN (AP)—The Reds accused the Allies today of two new truce violations but a U. N. spokesman said the charges were not serious.

The accusations came as the Korean Military Armistice Commission and other truce groups met at Panmunjom.

The Communists made their 11th and 12th complaints of Allied truce violation in the 4-day-old truce at the hour and 46-minute meeting of the U. N.-Red armistice commission. The commission is charged with policing the 2½-mile-wide demilitarized zone across Korea.

The Communists said military aircraft circled and reconnoitered over the zone Wednesday and Thursday.

Maj. Gen. Blackshear M. Bryan, head of the U. N. team on the commission, said the complaints would be investigated but they were not serious.

There were indications the U.N. Command is trying to steer clear of arguments over what it considers accidental or extremely minor violations.

There was no indication yet whether the Allies would accuse the Reds of a violation following Air Force reports that large numbers of planes—probably MIG jet fighters—flew south from Manchuria into North Korea Monday night after the cease-fire deadline.

Armistice terms specify that only replacement armament is to be allowed into North or South Korea—and that under supervision.

A joint Allied-Jet group discussed final details for exchanging prisoners, which is to begin next Wednesday.

As they met, the U.N. Command said it would move more Red prisoners north toward the exchange point at Panmunjom Sunday.

The Red Peiping radio said Allied prisoners in the Pyoktong camp in North Korea were given a farewell banquet. It said they joined with their Red captors in shouts of "Long live peace!"

However, Peiping did not say when the prisoners would begin moving south.

The broadcast, heard in Tokyo, said it was a "real grand feast," each man getting 1½ pounds of meat plus vegetables, all "prepared in Western style." It said, "beer, wine and candy also were made available."

At Panmunjom, Allied soldiers rushed preparations to receive the 12,763 Allied prisoners—3,313 of them Americans. About 69,000 North Korans and 5,000 Chinese will be turned back to the Reds.

Bryan told newsmen after the joint commission's fourth meeting that "Things went along all right today."

He acknowledged that the commission had "hit snags" but indicated none was serious.

Bryan said he considered progress in the truce smooth and told a newsman:

"We have accomplished as much as we could expect in this time. You must remember that we are dealing in three languages and it's been fearfully slow."

The commission agreed that civil police will enter the buffer zone shortly to maintain order and protect joint U. N. - Red observer teams. They also will keep unauthorized persons out of the zone.

Their nationality was not announced.

Both sides reported they had abandoned the buffer zone by 10 p. m. Thursday, the deadline set by truce terms.

Bryan also told the Reds that the U. N. Command plans to build a runway for light aircraft in the Panmunjom area.

The commission adjourned after scheduling another meeting for 11 a. m. Saturday (7 p. m. Friday, EST).

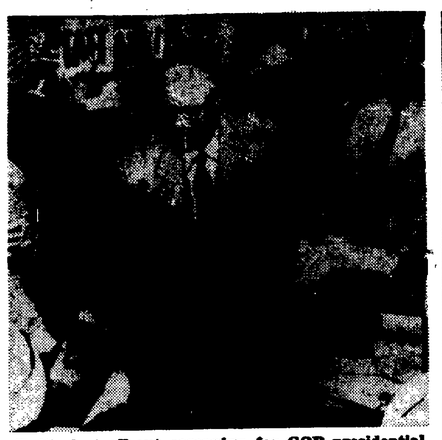
Scenes From 'Mr. Republican's' Political Career

Young Robert (left, rear) first became familiar with the White House when his father, William Howard Taft, was President for one term, 1909-13.

"Mr. Republican" speaks up.

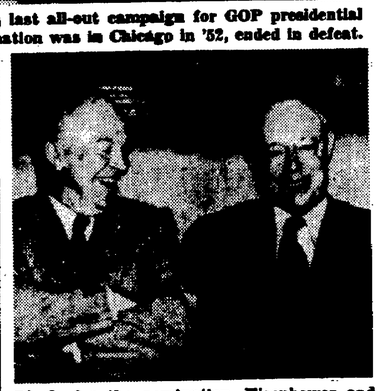


Taft's last all-out campaign for GOP presidential nomination was in Chicago in '52, ended in defeat.

Illness finally forced senator to give up majority leadership.

Enmity of organized labor was earned for Taft by the Taft-Hartley law.

A family man, "Bob" and his wife, Martha, raised four sons, who surrounded them with grandchildren, shown at Taft summer home.



Rivals for the nomination, Eisenhower and Taft patched differences and worked together after the election and inauguration.

the bill through the rules committee and seek a House vote later today. Republican chieftains confidently predicted—and Democrats generally agreed—it would sail through overwhelmingly.

But there is fierce opposition in the Senate, and the issue threw a cloud of doubt over plans to adjourn Congress this week. However, there were signs at least some of the Senate opposition to the President's plea was wavering.

Chairman Daniel A. Reed (R-NY) announced the House committee voted approval for a bill, drafted by him, to increase the debt ceiling from 275 to 290 billion dollars. The action came after Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey and Budget Director Joseph Dodge presented the administration's case in a closed meeting.

Humphrey said yesterday "near panic" might result if the lid is not lifted and the government as a result couldn't pay its bills. The debt now stands at 272½ billions.

The Senate Finance Committee planned a similar session this afternoon (1:30 p. m. EST). House leaders obviously hoped to send the bill to the Senate in time for that committee to act on it today.

As the Senate recessed last night, acting Republican Leader Knowland of California told his colleagues he still "will want to reserve judgment on the hour and day of adjournment" in view of the President's request.

He said he advised Secretary of State Dulles he does not expect to be free to leave either Saturday or Sunday on their scheduled trip to Korea to confer with Korean President Syngman Rhee.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Democratic leader, called the debt limit request "startling—it it has been sent to the Congress at the 11th hour."

Eisenhower formally asked for the increase in a terse, 250-word message to Congress last night.

The President said it will be necessary to borrow more money and exceed the present limit "to meet necessary expenditures and to maintain a safe working balance of funds . . . to conduct the government's fiscal affairs effectively."

House Speaker Joseph Martin (R-Mass) told reporters there may be a wail of protests over the issue, but when the chips are down congressmen "will be falling all over themselves to vote for the increase."

Forces and had been operating from Japan.

A B50 normally carries a crew of 10.

Forbes announced the names of 14 airmen listed officially as missing. Officials said the other two men were not regular members of the crew and Forbes had no record of their names.

Roche was picked up from a small rescue boat dropped Thursday night by an Air Force plane.

The Air Force said he was about 40 miles south of Mys (cape) Povorotny, which is 50 miles east of Vladivostok.

Vladivostok, some 600 miles northwest of Tokyo, probably is Russia's biggest naval base in the Far East.

A search plane said it may have spotted more survivors bobbing in life belts Wednesday but heavy fog made further search impossible.

Friday no additional survivors could be found and the search was called off.

U. S. and Soviet planes have clashed three times in the Far East in less than a year.

Pastor Labels House Probers 'Un-American'

Rev. McMichael Says Procedure Would Have 'Condemned Jesus'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Rev. Jack Richard McMichael, confronted by a man who accused him of being a one-time Communist, today told the House Un-American Activities Committee: "I don't know him."

The accuser was Manning Johnson, a middle-aged Negro. He was called to the witness stand only a few feet from the young Methodist minister, shortly after McMichael repeated his testimony of yesterday that he didn't recall the man by name.

"If I were to see him perhaps I could tell you if I ever saw him before," McMichael had said.

Chairman Velde (R-Ill) had an aide bring Johnson into the room.

When McMichael said he didn't know him, Johnson said: "Take a good look."

"I took a good look," McMichael replied. "I don't recognize him by his name or by his appearance."

McMichael, a lanky and aggressive 36-year old preacher from Upper Lake, Calif., assailed his hearing yesterday as un-American and un-Christian.

He said:

"The whole procedure was based on a principle that would have condemned Jesus—guilt by association."

The lanky witness, quick in speech and a hard man to quiet, gave the committee what one member, Rep. Clardy (R-Mich), called "an exasperating day."

During the hearing, the 36-year-old Georgia-born preacher asserted he is not now and never has been a Communist.

He shouted that two former Communists who branded him as a Red were "liars and perjurers" and "ought to be so charged and tried."

"I'd appreciate your producing them and letting me look at them," he thundered. "They are my accusers. I'm an American and I'd like to confront them."

The two men were named by Committee Counsel Robert L. Kunzig as Manning Johnson and Leonard Patterson.

"I've engaged in no conspiracy with the Communist party," McMichael said, telling the committee it was guilty of circulating "false charges."

Such statements were intermingled with numerous declarations that he had no recollection regarding past associations with some organizations that have been cited as subversive.

PEACE JUSTICE QUITS

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Hobart L. Mercer of West Chester, resigned yesterday as justice of the peace for Union Twp., of Butler County. A state auditor's report earlier this week alleged a $2,398 shortage in Mercer's accounts. Mercer said he was making arrangements to pay the shortage.

HUNT BLACK PANTHER

MILLERSBURG, Ohio (AP) — Hunters in this Holmes County area are hoping to get their sights on a black panther which several residents claim to have seen roaming the countryside. Bert Giaque said he first saw the beast three weeks ago as it walked across a road about 100 feet from where he was doing farm work.

Southern Ontario averages about three inches of rainfall during the summer.

Senator Taft

was with an apparent resolve to return some day in his own right.

Few Americans ever yearned more steadfastly to be president. Four times Taft sought the Republican nomination. But each time it was denied him. His party held him in high esteem but it never offered him the chance he longed for—to go before the American people as a candidate for the presidency.

Taft was Ohio's favorite son candidate for the GOP presidential nomination as early as 1936, two years before the Buckeye State sent him to the Senate for the first time.

By 1940 he was a leading contender for the nomination. But it was snatched away by a dark horse, Wendell Wilkie.

Taft stepped aside in 1944 to leave the field clear for his friend and fellow Ohioan, John W. Bricker. Bricker wound up as a defeated vice presidential candidate.

In 1948, Taft again was a strong contender for the nomination. But Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York won it from him.

Four years later, Taft made his last and most formidable bid and for a time it looked as though he might succeed. But Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower came home from Europe and the aura of his personality pushed Taft down to defeat on the first ballot of the 1952 GOP convention.

Polio Affects Third Marion Child in Week

The third polio in the city this week was reported today by the Marion Health Department.

The victim is three - year - old Nicholas Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Holley Baker of 204½ E. Center St. This was the sixth confirmed case of polio reported this year in Marion and increases the total for the county to nine.

Nicholas first became ill Sunday and was taken to Children's Hospital in Columbus the same day. An older sister, Patti, 6, was quarantined at the home of her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Nick Sansotta of 354 Summit St., on Monday.

Confirmation the illness was polio came to health department officials yesterday.

Both Patti and her parents were given gamma globulin shots under rules of the Ohio Department of Health, Marion Health Department spokesmen said. Mr. Baker is a Marion attorney.

Other polio cases reported this week in the city were Virginia Everly, 11, of 540 Blaine Ave., reported yesterday, and Letitia Swartz, 2, of 350 Waterloo St. reported Tuesday.

Three other cases in the city and three in the county were reported previously.

Arson

Sharrock was arrested at the V and S Bar at 5:15 p.m. Tuesday after police and firemen were called to apartments above the restaurant to investigate an attempt to set fire to the building. He was held on an open charge for investigation from that time until late yesterday when the formal charges were filed against him.

Story of His Arrest

Investigators — who say they have worked on the case almost around the clock since Sharrock was arrested—gave this account today of events leading up to the arrest.

Shortly before 5 p.m. Tuesday, Sharrock left his apartment and went to Tim's Ohio Station at 135 Davids St. and bought a gallon of gas. Carrying it in a can he went back to his apartment and began spreading it up and down a 60-foot hallway.

One of the occupants, Mrs. John Sours, smelled the gasoline and looked out her door. When she did this Sharrock reportedly told her she'd better get out because "this is going to be a good one," investigators said. Mrs. Sours ran down the stairs and out of the building.

At about this same time, another resident, Ted Kohler, opened his door and saw Sharrock with match in hand preparing to strike it against a match box, investigators said.

Knocks Match From Hand

Quickly and with no regard for his own safety, Kohler then knocked the match from Sharrock's hand, took the match box away from him.

Kohler then dashed to the W. Center St. fire station and told fireman Wilson E. Sifritt what had happened. Sifritt quickly called Fire Chief Owen A. Sifritt and city police, and Sharrock was arrested a few minutes later as he sat in the V and S Bar and Grill.

Fire Chief Sifritt said today that had Sharrock succeeded in striking the match there "wouldn't have been a chance in the world for most of the 13 people in those apartments at that time to have gotten out."

He said that a gallon of gasoline spread out in such a manner so that fumes could spread would have the explosive power of a "large supply of dynamite." Chief Sifritt praised Kohler for his quick action and said without it, "there would no doubt have been some loss of life."

Air Force Sets Korea Losses At 1,000 Planes

TOKYO (AP)—Far East Air Forces said today it lost 1,000 warplanes behind Red lines in the Korean War, 20 less than the number of Red planes destroyed.

FEAF did not include Allied losses behind U. N. lines.

FEAF said it lost 110 planes in aerial duels, 667 to Red ground fire and 213 to "other causes" (usually engine failure).

It said 58 U. S. Sabre jets were lost in the 3-year conflict while blasting 800 Red MIG jets from the skies, a ratio of almost 14 to 1.

B29 bomber gunners got 16 other MIGs, and 23 went to 5th Air Force fighter-bombers.

The figures included the Korea-based 5th Air Force; Australian, South African and South Korean units; shore based Marine planes; and B29 bombers flying from Japan and Okinawa. They did not include Navy carrier-based planes.

In addition to the 839 MIGs, 181 other planes were destroyed by FEAF fliers. FEAF said 182 Red planes probably were destroyed, including 919 MIGs.

FEAF said the last plane it lost in the Korean War was an F80 Shooting Star reconnaissance craft.

Lausche

national office last year when he was reported under consideration for a place on the party ticket at the Democratic convention in Chicago. But associates asserted that statement applied only to the situation at that time.

They regarded Michael V. DiSalle of Toledo, former mayor, state legislator and federal price stabilizer, as a likely Lausche appointee who would stand for election in 1954.

And in that category they placed Congressman Robert T. Secrest, Senecaville Democrat now in his eighth term from the nominally Republican 15th District in Southeastern Ohio.

Mayor Thomas A. Burke of Cleveland, where Lausche formerly was judge and mayor, looked like a good prospect. Burke, now serving his fourth term, said he wanted to practice law and would not seek reelection this fall.

Burke declined to say whether he would be receptive to a Senate appointment but DiSalle spoke without reservation.

"I would much prefer that to anything else," DiSalle told newsmen. "I would run for it in 1954," he added in discussing the Senate situation.

Others discussed as possible Senate appointees included:

James W. Huffman, Columbus attorney appointed to a Senate vacancy in 1945 during Lausche's first term. Huffman failed to win election the following year. He declined current comment.

Congressman Frazier Reams of Toledo, state welfare director during Lausche's first term and a Democrat although now calling himself an independent.

Former Lt. Gov. George D. Nye of Waverly, Lausche's campaign running mate who failed to survive the Republican sweep in Ohio last year.

Robert N. Gorman of Cincinnati, former Ohio Supreme Court judge.

land (R-Calif). Knowland, who has been acting leader in Taft's illness, might have opposition, but no decision on the post is expected until January.

It's in the heart of the Senate, not its numerical lineup, that Taft's death has left a void seldom created by the passing of another senator.

Despite its sometime pomp and circumstance, the Senate does business on a man to man basis. Bills flourish or die on the turn of cloakroom conversation. Compromises are born in floor huddles behind the shield of often-extraneous oratory.

It was in this sort of informal give and take that the senator from Ohio excelled. He had his own ideas about legislation but he was usually flexible, ever ready to listen to the other side.

When a colleague had Taft's promise, he could bank it and draw on it when needed, confident of delivery.

His ability to judge the Senate's reaction made Taft's advice invaluable at conferences of congressional leaders and the President. There is evidence that many administration proposals either were dropped entirely or radically revised on his judgment.

The Piano Player

By Frank Tripp

"They laughed when I sat down at the piano" was the catch-line of an ad for a correspondence course in piano playing. They laughed because no one expected to hear more than a few chords or "chopsticks."

Such laughter, or groans, need not be reserved exclusively for the novice. There are other times when the audience would groan, if it dared.

It's when you're a trapped guest in a private parlor and somebody wallows in Bach before a group of listeners whose music appreciation has a range somewhere in between "Old Black Joe" and "Old Man River." Or even those who could get enjoyment out of Herbert, Gershwin or Kern.

Most people enjoy music that strums their melody sense. So why not accommodate the symphonically ignorant, rather than bore them? There's a fitness of things that applies to chamber music as much as to conversation.

There are normally charming people who wouldn't think of insulting their less accomplished friends with conversation or discussions with which their companions are unfamiliar.

Yet ask these same people to drop down at the piano on the way out from dinner and too often you're in for a lengthy repertoire of high brow numbers that are Greek to all save the player.

There was a sign that hung over the piano in the wild days of the hunkytunk in western mining towns: "Don't shoot the piano player; he's doing the best he can."

No doubt that appeal saved from an early grave many an itinerant musician, en route toward what became Hollywood. There have been modern times when an evening-gowned dame sitting at a Steinway grand in a swank salon needed like protection, it has seemed to me.

At least there have been times when nothing but the certainty of social exile has prevented me throwing a table lamp at the bird who mistook a request to play a tune for an invitation to give an hour's exhibition of his mastery of the classics.

Politeness demands that no matter how bored you are, how little you understand or get out of the ordeal, you must applaud and make some complimentary remark at each pause; which very likely will be at the wrong time, between "movements" of the torture you are enduring.

If the player has any sense at all he knows after your first feeble reaction that you're fed up, and he should switch to "St. Louis Blues" or, better still, get off the bench and unjail the party, which is itching to get to bridge, poker or the ice cubes.

But let an unassuming ham, who has to be coaxed, sit down with the apology "I only play by ear" and chances are the whole gang will be around him singing in 15 minutes.

His talent—and such a one has coveted talent—doesn't go over the heads of his listeners. That it's just because he's only "doing the best he can," like the westward ho boys, doesn't diminish his glory.

Popular, but scarce, is the true artist who plays classics for the classical, ragtime for the fidgety, Herbert for the nostalgic—and "Sweet Adeline" for the souse.

Mt. Gilead School Will Boast New Auditorium in '54

Special to The Star

MT. GILEAD — Contracts were let Tuesday night by the Mt. Gilead Board of Education for the converting of the old school gymnasium into a permanent auditorium. Work is expected to start within the next couple of weeks and to be completed by early next year.

The new auditorium will have a sloping floor and will have permanent seats for 425 persons. An orchestra pit will be located in front of the stage which will completely rebuilt. The stage will be six feet deeper and will be entirely of new construction. Walls and the ceiling will be replastered and the auditorium will be rewired. A projection booth will be installed at the rear and new heating units will be installed. Entrances from the basement will be closed off and will be used as storage rooms.

Area under the stage, now partially excavated, will be completely excavated. A stairway will go down from the south end of the stage and will enter into dressing rooms, a large storage room and lavatories.

The room which was formerly the girls shower room and which was located under the gymnasium will be converted into a music room and storage room. The stage of the new auditorium will be available for music practice and music classes.

Part of the auditorium will be equipped with the type of seating that can be used for a study hall if necessary.

The contract for the general construction went to the Baldauf Construction Co. of Marion for $16,435. The Carter Electric Co. of Galion was awarded the electrical contract on their low bid of $832. Plumbing and heating contract went to the Dible Co. of Carey for $8,116.

HELICOPTER DANCE. Look close and you'll notice that this Fort Sill, Okla., helicopter is dressed up like a guy wearing a straw hat. It's "Helicopter Harry," one of four "whirly birds" at the fort which make up a helicopter square dance team. One other is similar to this, with two "dressed" like girls. They "swing partners" in air.

Office at Harding High Will Be Closed Aug. 3-17

General offices at the new Marion Harding High School will be closed between Aug. 3 and Aug. 17, Cecil Gabler, principal of the school, has announced. During these two weeks, he and members of the office staff will be on vacation.

Because of the extra work involved in preparing for the opening of school on Sept. 8 and because of the open house visitation set for the last week in this month, no schedule changes will be made during the three weeks preceding the school opening date, Gabler said.

However, new students who have moved to Marion since the close of school last spring are asked to report to the principal's office between Aug. 17 and Sept. 8 for registration.

Visitors will be welcomed at the school during open house Aug. 24-28, and a formal dedication ceremony will be held on Friday, Aug. 28, at 8 p.m.

Master Returns, Dog Is Happy Once More

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (AP)—All's well today with Allgretta. Her Eddie is home.

For the last month Allgretta has probably been the unhappiest German Shepherd dog in the country. Eddie Rauss, her 16-year-old master, was away at the Boy Scout Jamboree in California. When Eddie left the dog became morose and was unable to eat or play.

Eddie returned home yesterday. Allgretta greeted him with whimpers and wild tail wagging.

And at last reports, the consumption of dog food at the Rauss household is back to normal.

17 Per Cent Ahead

Business Profits Show Big Gains for First Half

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Business profits — as judged by 378 of the first corporations to report on net income after taxes — are running 17 per cent ahead of the first six months of last year.

Nearly three out of every four corporations show a brighter profit picture in the first half of 1953. Only 98 of the firms this year are trailing behind the profits they reported a year ago. Five report a net loss. Last year eight did.

Reasons for the earnings spurt this year differ among the industries. Many owe their gains to larger sales, reflecting the general booming business conditions. But a few report slightly lower sales this year and still have higher profits — due in some cases to successful paring of operating costs.

The steel industry — running a whopping 62 per cent ahead of a year ago — owes much of the bright comparison to capacity production this year as against strike-crippled output last summer.

Oil companies who were struck for a time a year ago show better profits this year. Some oil companies who had no strikes last year are running behind this year. Most oil corporations in both categories show better sales in 1953.

Aircraft makers show the greatest gains — profits more than doubled this year due to the defense spending program. Airlines are up this year by 50 per cent.

Other big gainers are railroads, appliance makers and suppliers of the auto industry. The motor industry itself is 13 per cent further into the black than a year ago. Utilities are running about 15 per cent ahead of last year.

Some industries fall behind in the profits parade. Coal companies were hurt the worst, the industry trailing by 28 per cent. The drug industry as a whole is off by 13 per cent (due in the main to a big drop by one large company); liquor and beer by 3 per cent and farm equipment by 1 per cent.

The most distant galaxies visible by the largest telescope are about two billion light-years away from the earth.

Bible Words to Live by

JOHN 10:10. "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly."

In these words we find the keynote to the purpose of the coming of Jesus of Nazareth among men. All of us want to live, we want to get the most out of life, and the word "abundant" is a catchy one indeed. Through the centuries men have sought for personal wealth, for personal gain and honor, and when they came in conflict with their fellows they used every means at hand to defeat an opponent. Following this procedure, history is a record of unhappiness and meaningless living. Jesus came to change this attitude and this manner of living. The roots of His teachings were in the Ten Commandments, which are timeless and ageless. But on beyond a legal concept He holds up the ideal of love, faith, trust, unselfishness, and a devotion to the welfare of mankind.

Life to Jesus was vastly more than an existence, it meant exuberant, happy living. Happy living can only come when God is allowed to direct us in the pathways of unselfish service. Hence, not only the challenge of this great text, but its incomparable promise that when we seek His ways, we shall live joyously, abundantly—yes, eternally.

Ex-Chaplin Protege In Psychiatric Ward

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The young woman who won a paternity suit against Charlie Chaplin in 1946 was returned to the psychopathic ward of General Hospital yesterday.

Police said they found Joan Berry, 33, wandering in her stocking feet in suburban Torrance. She could not explain, they said, how she got there from her home in nearby Redondo Beach. She underwent voluntary treatment at the psychopathic ward about a month ago.

Miss Berry was at one time Chaplin's protegee. Her suit named him the father of Carol Ann, now 9.

Wrong 'Profile'

WOONSOCKET, R. I. (AP)—The Army and Air Force recruiting station has received a telephone call from a worried mother who wanted to know if the Army would change her son's face very much.

She said her son had written that his profile was being changed.

"Profile" is Army slang for medical records, the recruiting officers assured her.

30-Day Jail Term Fails To Cool Off Determined Suitor

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—For three years a mail carrier pressed his suit for the heart of a dental assistant—and yesterday he wound up in jail.

Edward S. Kropfli, 44, first saw Mrs. Lavera O'Betz, 26, when he visited his dentist. He told her he knew at once that he had found the love of his life. She rebuffed him, gently at first.

Thereafter Kropfli wrote her more than 100 letters. He called her more than 1,000 times. But Mrs. O'Betz married someone else.

Undaunted, Kropfli persisted. Once he visited her office. She slapped him, and got a disorderly conduct complaint.

Kropfli pleaded guilty yesterday and started serving 30 days in jail.

"I'm still in love with her," he said.

Singer Divorced

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Mrs. Billy Eckstine divorced the singer yesterday on grounds of cruelty. She testified he played golf all day, went out with the fellows at night and "I hardly ever saw him."

Her attorney said that under a settlement she will receive up to $23,750 a year in alimony. Eckstine, 36, did not contest the suit of his 32-year-old wife, June. They were married in 1942.

Chisox Shave Full Game From New York Margin

Chicago Routs Parnell For 17-1 Win at Boston

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

A week of watchful waiting opens today in the American League. New York will be waiting for the Chicago bubble to burst and the White Sox will be watching to see that it doesn't.

These two clubs—the defending champion and the one genuine contender—go their separate ways against second division also-rans for the next seven days, then collide head-on in a vital 4-game series in Yankee Stadium starting a week from today.

The White Sox, 4½ games behind and deep enough into the season that even a temporary letdown could prove fatal, face a considerably tougher task than the Yankees.

They stop off in Washington tonight for the first of four single games with the Senators, whom they've beaten 9 out of 14 so far. But the next jump is Philadelphia and the Athletics have given Chicago more trouble this year than any other club in the league, winning 10 of their 15 meetings.

Meanwhile, the Yankees will be feasting on the hapless St. Louis Browns (12 victories in 14 games) and the almost-as-lowly Detroit Tigers (10 out of 15).

If the White Sox can preserve their present position that series next weekend should be a lulu. Paul Richards' go-go boys have a perfect 5-for-5 mark in New York this year and are the only team with a season's edge (7-6) over the Yankees.

The way the Sox played yesterday in Boston was enough to make even the ardent yankee fans pause. The Chicagoans blasted lefty Mel Parnell, a 14-game winner, for 6 hits and 7 runs in 3 innings, then pounded two second-line throwers for 15 more hits ad 10 more runs. The final count was 17-1 on 21 hits.

Washington's Chuck Stobbs checked Detroit until Walt Dropo drilled a 3-run homer in the ninth but the Senators still won handily, 7-4.

In the only night game in either league the Philadelphia Athletics scored five times in the second inning for a 5-3 decision over the St. Louis Browns. Gus Zernial hit his 23rd homer during the uprising.

Milwaukee sliced a game off Brooklyn's imposing National League lead by whipping New York, 5-0, while the Dodgers were bowing to Chicago for the first time in seven games, 3-2. Brooklyn still holds a 7-game bulge over the second place Braves.

Enos Slaughter, who was playing pro ball before a lot of the Pirates were born, led St. Louis to a 10-4 victory over Pittsburgh. He collected two doubles and two singles in four tries and ran his unbroken hit string to seven.

Lew Burdette became the third pitchers in four days to blank the Giants who had started west with high pennant hopes. He scattered six hits while his mates routed Sal Maglie with three runs in the first inning.

A home run by Ralph Kiner with two on the first inning gave the Cubs their victory over Brooklyn.

Redlegs Blast Simmons But Lose to Phils

CINCINNATI (AP)—When the Philadelphia Phils finished belaboring Cincinnati Redleg hurlers yesterday they had a 17-8 victory despite the fact the Cincinnatians had cuffed Curt Simmons around like he was a beginner instead of one of the National League's top-rated hurlers.

Simmons was lifted for a pinch hitter in the Phils' half of the fourth after giving the Reds a fat 5-0 lead.

Steve Ridzik finished and got credit for the triumph.

The Phils clipped starter Fred Baczewski for three runs in the fourth and then got three more in the fifth on four hits, one a triple by Richie Ashburn.

In the sixth the Phils piled up nine more runs off Frank Smith, Clyde King and Joe Nuxhall on six hits, three walks and a bad throw by Hobie Landrith.

Herman Wehmeier yielded the last two Phil runs in the seventh on Mel Clark's single and Del Ennis' second home run of the game.

Enis, who got two singles to go with his pair of homers, drove in six of the Phil runs. Granny Hamner was another Philadelphian to get four hits.

The Reds started off as if they were going to turn the game into a rout. Bobby Adams, double, a walk to Willard Marshall and Landrith's double produced three runs in the opening inning.

Kluszewski's double drove in another tally in the second and Marshall walloped a home run in the third. Adams' double, an infield out and a long fly brought in the sixth Cincinati run in the fourth.

That ended the Redleg scoring until the eighth when they made up a little of the big deficit on George Lerchen's single and Gus Bell's home run.

Horseshoes No Help, Texas Nine Loses Again

ABILENE, Tex. (AP)—The Abilene Blue Sox, cellar team in the Class C West Texas-New Mexico League, collected a wheelbarrow of horseshoes from loyal fans last night, hoping to change their luck.

They've only won 7 of their last 35 games and have a 32-64 record.

Every fan that brought a horseshoe was admitted free. But the wheelbarrow full went for naught.

Plainview beat the Blue Sox 3-0.

Pass Defense For Brownies May Improve

HIRAM, Ohio (AP)—Two backs who spent the last two football seasons in Army uniforms have shown first-week training form that promises the Cleveland Browns an even better pass defense than last year.

The Browns' aerial defense last season was one of the best in the National Football League. Two of the four members are zone-safety man Bert Rechichar, traded to Baltimore, and linebacker Hal Herring, retired.

The two replacements, just released by Uncle Sam, are Ken Gorgal, regular safety man for the browns in 1950, and Ken Konz, a Louisiana State star who was first choice of the club in the 1951 draft.

Working with these two are veterans Warren Lahr and Tommy James. Injuries from an auto accident hampered James during the early part of last season.

Three first-year men were released yesterday—fullbacks Hugh Frost of Bluffton, Wes Abrams of Washington and Lee and end Lorinzer Clark of North Carolina A T.

Sox Keep Record Clean at St. Paul

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Toledo Sox—American Association leaders — demonstrated again last night why they like playing in Lexington Park at St. Paul. The Sox defeated the Apostles, 3-0, for a perfect record of seven straight triumphs in the host city.

Louisville, trailing Toledo by half a game, won its sixth straight in handing Charleston a 10-3 pasting. In other games, Minneapo" nipped Indianapolis, 5-4, in a 10-inni g battle and Columbus and Kansas City split a doubleheader. The Kaws won the opener, 2-0, but Columbus came back to take the nightcap, 10-4.

SHORT SPORTS

By John Short

We apparently were wrong again. We have been under the impression the sports world was made up of some pretty fair athletes. Now we discover we were wrong. All sports and the people taking part in them are going to pot.

SHORT

Several times during the past few weeks we have been told that the "good old" days are passed. No one can compare with the athletes at the turn of the century and in the roaring 20's.

One kind gentleman raked us over the coals when we mentioned we had never seen the Cleveland Indians play in League Park or Red Grange carry a football. He stomped out in a rage when it was suggested that present day athletes might be able to hold their own in all sports.

The past decade alone offers an impressive list of names in any sport. Two stars, who probably will go down as all-time baseball greats, are still active. Stan Musial and Ted Williams lead the list but are closely followed by Joe DiMaggio, Lou Boudreau, Ralph Kiner, Bob Feller and Allie Reynolds.

Glen Davis, Felix Blanchard, Vic Janowicz, Leon Hart and Johnny Lujack turned in sparkling performances on the gridiron while Bob Coutry, Bob Kurland, Charlie Share, Paul Unruh and George Mikan stole the basketball headlines.

Byron Nelson, Ben Hogan and Sammy Snead have made the golf world set up and watch and Junie McMahon and Ned Day have done the same for the bowling sport. In the horse racing business, Ponder and Count Turf could hold their own with any horse and Eddie Arcaro and Johnny Longden are tops in the jockey business.

We have always thought of Joe Louis as one of the greatest champions ever to enter the ring. Ray Robinson and Kid Gavilan also must be considered in the list of greats.

Women athletes also have their favorites. Who can deny that Babe Zaharias and perhaps Patty Berg are top-flight golfers and that Ann Curtis cuts a fancy figure in a swimming pool.

As for team performances, we don't think the performance of the Army powerhouse in 1944, '45 and '46 and some of the Notre Dame juggernauts will ever be duplicated.

And in the coaching field, we still have the top two in Frank Leahy and Paul Brown.

Need Help From Luke, Doby

Tribe Still in Running, Claims Manager Lopez

NEW YORK (AP)—Al Lopez took his band of Cleveland Indians to Philadelphia today still hopeful of starting that long awaited winning streak that would put the Tribe back in the running for the American League pennant.

Having salvaged the finale of the three-game series in New York, the Indians now find only the White Sox between themselves and the first place Yankees. But nobody realizes better than Lopez what sort of a Herculean task faces his charges in the remaining 58 games.

"We've still got a chance," Lopez said hopefully, following yesterday's 4-3 thriller over the Yankees that cut the champions' lead to nine games over the third place Tribe. "But if we are going to win, we've got to get some more hitting help from Luke Easter and Larry Doby.

"They, along with (Al) Rosen, form our big guns. Thus far, Al has had to carry the load almost by himself. I don't know where we'd be now if it were not for Rosen. If they were to take a vote for the most valuable player in the league right now I don't see how they could deny the honor to Rosen."

Rosen drove in an important run in yesterday's victory with a first inning single that prolonged a rally which netted the Indians three runs. That gave him a league leading total of 84 runs batted in. The slugging third baseman also leads the circuit with 26 home runs, ranks fourth in total hits with 115, fifth in runs scored with 62 and is among the five leading hitters with an average of .310.

Lopez expressed puzzlement over remarks attributed to Manager Casey Stengel complaining against Al's withholding of aces Bob Lemon, Mike Garcia and Early Wynn for use against the Yankees.

"I can't believe Casey really said that," Lopez said. "If he did, he couldn't have been serious. Why shouldn't I save my best pitchers for the Yankees? They're leading the league, aren't they? For whom does he want me to save them? For the Browns or Tigers?"

Bill Glynn, substitute first baseman, poled his first triple in the major leagues in the eighth inning yesterday to score Wally Westlake, who had walked, for the winning run.

Pacer Cruises To New Mark, Pays Off $75

WESTBURY, N. Y. (AP)—Light harness horse racing had a new record for pacing a mile and one-half over a half-mile track to put into the books today.

The mark of 3:05 3-5 was established by Chuck Volo in winning the $50,000 Nassau Pace at Roosevelt Raceway last night. The 5-year old son of Volomite, owned by S. A. Watnen and Son of Ft. Fairfield, Me., was driven by Wendell Wathen of Southern Pines, N. C.

The fast three turns around the Roosevelt oval clipped two-fifths of a second off the world mark of 3:06 established by Scottish Spence in winning the 1951 Nassau Pace and matched by Guinea Gold at Laurel Raceway in Maryland last year.

The second longest shot in the field of 15 top ranking sidewheelers, Chuck Volo paid $75 for a $2 mutuel after reaching the wire a length and a quarter ahead of Philip Scott.

Direct Rhythm, another 5-year old with a record of 1:58 for the mile, trailed by another two and three-quarters lengths. Dudley Hanover, last year's winner, was fourth.

READY FOR CHANNEL SWIM

Florence Chadwick of San Diego, Calif., takes some food while training at Dover, England. The swimmer said she is ready to attempt to make a double crossing of the English Channel. Florence who has already swam the Channel in both directions, has decided to "get the Channel out of the way" before undertaking the rest of her projects, which include the swimming of the Bosporus, Dardanelles and Gibraltar Straits.

Watch Furgol Is Word for All-American

CHICAGO (AP)—Marty Furgol is on a hot streak and the rest of the golf pros say he is the one to watch in the $30,000 All-American tournament at Tam O'Shanter.

He is known as a "streaky" player to his colleagues, meaning when he has one hot round there usually are several more in his system.

The 185-pound, 6-foot pro, who registers out of Lemont, Ill., blistered Tam's par 72 with a 66 to lead yesterday's first round.

Entering today's second round, Furgol will have to stay hot to keep ahead. Only one stroke behind with 67's in the chase for a top prize of $3,420 were Doug Ford and Ted Kroll, well-seasoned campaigners who rank third and seventh, respectively, on the current money winning list.

At 68 were Bob Hamilton and Jimmy Demaret.

Leading the All-American Women's Open into the second round is Betty Hicks, veteran pro from Culver City, Calif. She posted par 76 yesterday. Patty Berg and Betty Jameson were close behind with 77's. Babe Zaharias, in her first golf competition since being operated on April 17, started out with a shaky 45 then rallied for a 37 on the back nine.

Columbus Hit By Shakeup in Farm System

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals named Dixie Walker to manage their Houston, Tex., farm club and moved 14 players in a major shakeup among their minor league holdings.

The shifts were announced last night after a two-day session of Redbird officials called by President August A. Busch.

Walker, a coach for the St. Louis club, replaced Al Hollingsworth who was given a scouting job in the organization.

Two of the players moved came to the parent club. They were outfielder Harry Elliott of Houston, who Manager Eddie Stanky thought might make the grade as a regular, and pitcher Willard Schmidt from Columbus to handle relief work.

In other shifts Rochester received pitcher Bob Hoch from Columbus.

Columbus lost its outfield—Pete Riggan, Jim Neufeldt and Ben Downs—to Houston and received pitcher Jack Cardney and first baseman-outfielder Fred Marolewski in return.

Error Mars No-Hitter

Thorpe Misses in Crack At Perfect Pitching Job

By committing an error in the seventh inning, Bud Thorpe ruined his own perfect game as Marion Industries blanked General-Alloy Thursday at Garfield Park. Marion Power Shovel shared the spotlight with Thorpe by taking its fifth straight of the second round in handing Engineer depot its first loss in second round Thursday night.

With two men out in the seventh and only Hopkins to retire to make it 21 straight batters in a row, Thorpe committed the error allowing Hopkins to reach first. Thorpe fanned 12 and struck out the side in the second and third innings. Industries scored in every inning except the fifth and sixth.

The Shovel and Depot entered Thursday's game tied for first with four wins and no losses. Dwight Wilcox pitched a five hitter to turn back the Depot 7-3. MPS, behind 1-0 till the fourth came through with two runs on a double by Jack Higgins. A walk and two doubles by Walters and Gruber scored two in the fifth and three insurance runs were scored by the Shovel in the sixth. A two run rally by the Depot in the sixth put it back in the game momentarily but the Shovel followed with three.

Erie whipped Universal Cooler 9-3 even though both teams were even in hits at the end of the game. Jimmy Kunkle scattered the opposing hits effectively except for the fourth inning when four hits accounted for the Cooler tallies.

Osco chased Huber from the field last night by an 18-3 score. The winners scored a total of eight runs in the first two innings and went on to win easily. Russ Frank and Morton homered for Osco.

Shovel will meet Huber next week and then will face the powerful Osco nine in the final week of the season.

Slaughter Sets Sights On NL Hitting Record

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Another day like yesterday and St. Louis Cardinal veteran Enos Slaughter will have the National League record for the most consecutive hits.

He has seven hits now, three from Wednesday night and four yesterday. Several National League oldtimers reached 10 but the sixth put it back in the game couldn't get past that mark.

Polly Riley Eliminated by Mae Murray

By FRITZ HOWELL

CINCINNATI (AP)—Two blondes and two brunettes, all in their twinkling twenties, went into 18-hole semi-final matches today in the 53rd Women's Western golf championship.

Miss Polly Riley, two-time titlist from Texas, was knocked out of play yesterday by Mae Murray, one down, the same girl the 26-year-old Fort Worth bookkeeper had defeated 4 and 3 for the 1950 championship.

Miss Murray was paired in today's round against Jane Nelson, tall schoolmarm from Indianapolis. The 25-year-old Hoosier hotshot triumphed 3 and 2 yesterday over Mrs. Maurice Glick, 42, housewife from Pikesville, Md.

In the brunette match were Claire Doran, 29, a Cleveland school teacher who has won the Ohio championship the last two years, and Pat Devany, 24-year-old auto saleswoman from Grosse Ile, Mich.

Today's victors meet tomorrow over 36 holes for the championship—a title none of the surviving quartet has ever won.

Topped by Michigan Win

Undefeated Bucks Were Widdoes' Greatest Thrill

By CARROLL WIDDOES
Ohio University Athletic Director

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—My greatest thrill in sports came in the 1944 season at Ohio State, when we went through the season undefeated. The entire season gave me many thrills but, of course, the final game of the season with Michigan provided the climax.

As the season wore on, each game seemed to lead up to the grand finale. Early in November we played Indiana, then coached by the late "Bo" McMillin, and had to come from behind to win.

The Ohio State team, led by quarterback Les Horvath and veteran linemen Bill Hackett, Bill Willis, Jack Dugger, Russ Thomas, Gordon Appleby, and Warren Amling, had shown the ability to come back when the going was rough.

Along with the veterans, our freshmen backs, with the steadying influence provided by Horvath, became a well-rounded unit. Such performers as Dick Flanagan, Bob Brugge, Ollie Cline and Tom Kean showed early they were destined to be stars.

The next-to-last game against Illinois set the stage for the memorable battle with Michigan. Ray Eliot took a fine team, led by Buddy Young, to Cleveland for a game in Municipal Stadium. Ohio State once again had to come from behind to win. That game had its share of thrills, as time after time Young threatened to break away.

The game with Michigan seemed to go according to a prearranged script. Twice the Wolverines forged into the lead before we finally moved ahead for good. The story of that final drive has been told many times.

Horvath's touchdown put us in the lead 18-14, but there were still three minutes to play. Michigan was still very much of a threat.

At this point, Dick Flanagan leaped high to intercept a pass and give us possession. It was this play that brought the realization to us that we were "in" and provided the last and best thrill of a great game.

(Editors note: Carroll Widdoes, after leading Ohio State through that memorable 1944 season, was named "Coach of the Year." At present the popular "Wid" is head football coach and athletic director at Ohio University in Athens.)

Wolfe Wins Bout In Straight Falls

Joe Wolfe won the main event of Thursday night's wrestling card at the armory over Hercules McIntre in two straight falls.

He took the first with a rolling body scissors after 14 minutes. The second fall was awarded Wolfe when McIntre was disqualified for roughing the referee.

Whitey Walberg lost the first fall of the semi-final to Jack Vansky after six minutes. He came back to take the second fall in 10 minutes with a full nelson and won the third fall after five minutes with the same hold.

Dom Doganiero was disqualified after 10 minutes of the opening bout with Ray Stevens. He failed to break at the count of five.

Sea-Going Veteran Heads Back to Ohio

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Harvey H. Hecker, Ohio's sea-going Spanish War veteran, plans to leave today for Dunkirk, N. Y., en route to Sandusky, Ohio. He began his leisurely 4,000-mile cruise in a 15-foot home-made motor boat from Sandusky last November.

Hecker, 75-year-old retired civil engineer, arrived in Buffalo yesterday and said he plans to stop at Erie, Ashtabula, Cleveland and Vermilion, but might skip some of those places if the weather is good.

Stunt Driver Is Hurt At Fayette County Fair

WASHINGTON COURT HOUSE, Ohio (AP)—A dynamite blast at the Fayette County fair last night put Lucky Lee Lott, manager of the "Hell Drivers" stunt team, in Memorial Hospital here.

The blast, part of Lott's show at the fair, went off prematurely. Lott suffered abrasions and damaged ear drums, officials reported.

SAFE ACROSS STREAM. Rescue workers grasp a stretcher bearing Miss Phyliss Anderson as it came across the Animas River at Durango, Colo. Miss Anderson was injured while mountain climbing and this crossing of the river by cable is one stage of her three-day trip back to civilization. After being carried to the river crossing, she was put aboard a narrow-gauge railroad train and brought to Durango.

Salem Blonde, 19, To Represent Ohio in 'Miss America' Contest

PAINESVILLE, OHIO (AP) — Nineteen-year-old Martha Zimmerman of Salem was the 1953 "Miss Ohio" today, and will represent the state in the "Miss America" contest which starts Labor Day in Atlantic City, N. J.

The blond, blue-eyed beauty, who lost a disputed decision earlier this year in the Ohio sesquicentennial queen contest, was judged the fairest of nine contestants last night at nearby Mentor-on-the-Lake. Although she is a comptometer operator for the Mullin Mfg., Co. of Salem, she was entered as "Miss Dennison."

Scoring the deciding points on her figure, the 5-foot-5 winner drew 62 points. Two points behind for second place was Nanci Hall, "Miss Cleveland." In third place with 38 points was Ellie Bolley of Junction City, "Miss Perry County."

Earlier this year Miss Zimmerman lost the sesquicentennial queen contest to Miss Janet Bailey of Akron. The loser's followers claimed one of the judges voted for Miss Bailey in the belief he was voting for Miss Zimmerman, but the decision was allowed to stand.

Miss Zimmerman played semi-classical numbers on the piano and accompanied them with an original dialogue for her talent display, but picked up the most points in her bathing suit appearance.

Her attributes in that category included these measurements: Hips 36 inches; waist, 24 inches; and bust, 35 inches.

Watching her win last night were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chalmer Zimmerman; her 15-year-old sister, Bonnie; her grandmother, Mrs. Zella Holloway of Salem, an aunt, Mrs. Vera Caldwell of Salem; and her beau, David White, 21, of Salem.

ASHLEY — Firemen from the Ashley and Marengo fire departments battled a blaze in the old William Westbrook homestead, five miles south east of here, for more than two hours this morning. The house was badly damaged.

Man Sent to Prison On Non-Support Charge

Special to The Star

UPPER SANDUSKY — David Walton of Upper Sandusky who was indicted in August, 1949, on a charge of non-support, was arraigned before Judge Russell H. Kear in Common Pleas Court here Wednesday. Walton pleaded guilty to the charge and was sentenced to the Ohio Penitentiary for a period of not less than one year, or more than three years.

Before passing sentence Judge Kear stated that the court found the defendant abandoned his children and that the Wyandot County Welfare Department has paid between $11,000 and $12,000 for support of defendant's children. The court found that defendant had failed to provide his children with any support for several years.

vious Congresses and not yet obligated.

The compromise is $455,734,211 above the amount originally voted by the House and $92,895,812 less than the Senate had approved early yesterday.

Ten of the 13 government money bills already have gone to the White House, and two more remain in conference committees seeking to resolve Senate - House differences.

One, carrying funds for the State, Commerce and Justice Departments, has been deadlocked for weeks over one issue: whether or not to provide funds for federal aid to airport construction.

The other, a catch-all measure carrying funds for such things as civil defense, and overseas information program and Korean rehabilitation, passed the Senate only yesterday. No major difficulties to agreement were apparent.

Weather Study Will Continue Despite Crash

O'NEILL, Neb. (AP)—An intensive Air Force weather study here will go on despite the crash of a helicopter which killed the project's top scientist and five others.

The helicopter, a big H18, plunged into a pasture yesterday and burst into flame.

The dead scientist was Dr. Guenter Loeser, 40, one of the directors of the Air Force lower atmosphere research project. Others killed were military personnel.

The flight was preliminary to the official start next Monday of six weeks of exhaustive wind research field tests.

Maj. Oscar J. Tibbets, project commander, said the study would definitely go on, though it might be delayed.

Dr. Loeser, a German who came to this country after World War II, was a leading meteorological scientist. He had helped develop the V2 rocket.

Witnesscs reported the helicopter crashed after it lost a rotor blade in mid-air. They said the fire which followed may have been due to magnesium flares carried by the craft.

The names of military personnel were withheld pending notification of next of kin.

Great New Team

By George Sokolsky

SOKOLSKY

At 79, Herbert Hoover will undertake another great task, which he says will be his last. That is what he tells me every time he starts another job.

As a matter of fact, he has never taken a day off in all the years I have known him, his Quaker training undoubtedly having impressed upon him the truism that idleness is a sin and that more people die of trying to prolong life by avoiding work than any other way.

When Herbert Hoover has no project in hand, he writes books and there are several in the works now. He does not permit old age to bother him and when nature asserts itself and some part of the human mechanism begins to show signs of wear and tear, he growls about the essential wickedness of the doctors who object to what he calls an old man's last comfort, a smoke.

AFTER EACH annual check-up, he tells me that nothing wrong was found that troubled him any.

He once said that 11 doctors worked over him and held a meeting and all they could come up with was a proposal that he reduce his intake of corn bread covered with a thick coating of butter and that he reduce his cigars.

I used to assist him in the latter process by taking a goodly helping of his cigars, but I find now that one of his sons swipes them before I do.

This is a vigorous old gentleman who is not afraid to die. He is only afraid of idleness, of sitting around doing no work, of wasting the late years of his life waiting for the inevitable.

So, Herbert Hoover works as hard at 78 (he will be 79 on August 10) as he did when he was a young mining engineer in China, in Russia or in Australia.

HIS NEW task is close to his heart. He does not call it reorganization but organization of the executive branch of the government. He uses the word, organization, because that never happened to our government: it was not organized; it just growed.

Bureau piled on bureau, agency on agency, duplication on duplication, with special interests exerting pressures and holders of office building personal empires.

The Civil Service, for instance, designed to keep politics to a minimum in administration, has actually become an agency of politics because of the folding of office-holders into the Civil Service by presidential order without examination for fitness.

Veterans' preference, designed to give those who fought in our wars equal opportunity with those who stayed home, has actually become a stumbling block to getting the fittest man for the job.

THE FIRST Hoover Commission, appointed by President Truman, was hampered by the law creating it and by opposition within the Commission itself on the part of those who believed in excessive government. Yet, most of its limited recommendations are now law.

The new Hoover Commission will have wider scope. Furthermore, it is a better designed group. The appointment of James A. Farley, as a member of this Commission, is significant. Jim Farley came out of the Roosevelt administration a beloved personality.

He has had an intense and intimate experience with the administration of government, not only as postmaster-general but also as the dispenser of patronage in the early years of the Roosevelt administration. In private business he has a reputation as a competent organizer.

Furthermore, Jim Farley and Herbert Hoover are friends and admire each other in spite of political differences. They will make a great team, to use an Eisenhower phrase, in this work.

A THIRD member of this Commission is Herbert Brownell Jr., the attorney general, whose success in life is due to an analytical mentality.

While his experience in public life is not comparable to either Hoover or Farley, he has a capacity for getting to the heart of a problem swiftly.

He must have had a pretty discouraging experience when he was recruiting new men for the Eisenhower administration and found that few who were fit would serve and that those whom he recruited could not organize on any chart of efficient operations because of existing impediments.

Brownell will want to cut through these impediments.

Altogether there will be 12 men on the Commission, which begins work in October, although I suspect that Herbert Hoover is already on the job.

Dealers Plan Exhibits For Crawford Fair

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS — Two farm implement dealers in Crawford County have decided to disregard a decision made by the Crawford County Implement Dealers Association not to exhibit their equipment at the county fair next week.

One dealer from Bucyrus and one from Galion have requested space at the fair to exhibit a complete line of equipment. A special meeting of the fair board was held following the decision and all dealers were urged to disregard the ban.

No space fees are charged dealers to display the implements, fair secretary James Gebhardt said.
